

BAY VIEW LUTHERAN CHURCH

WEEKLY UPDATE

ELLE DOWD WORKSHOP

Workshop Title: Why Should Christians Care About Abolition?

Workshop Description:

The uprisings last summer in the wake of the murder of George Floyd have led to widespread discussion about our criminal justice system. Elle Dowd, who wrote #BaptizedinTearGas about her own transformation during the uprising in Ferguson, will lead us in a workshop where we will explore what scripture and our tradition have to say about issues of state violence, public safety, justice, and our collective liberation. As part of the event, there will be a selected live reading from Elle's book, opportunity for Q&A, and time for book signings.

"God's work. Our hands." Sunday

Sept. 12 2021

Date September 12.

Bay View will be participating with the ELCA on God's Work Our Hands opportunities between the two Sunday services. To allow enough time between the services, we will be moving the 10:30 service to 11:00. Gods Work Our Hands will be doing service-related activities and Bay View beautification tasks from 9-10:30. We will have tasks available for all physical and mobility levels and activities will be broken out in three areas - masked, unmasked, and outside. We will have a full list of activities in upcoming weekly updates so please watch for those and come to church Sep 12, ready to help with our service projects and getting Bay View looking great!!

Worship

In-person and Facebook Live worship service will be held Sunday mornings at 8:00am

In-person Worship will be held Sunday mornings at 10:30am

Services will remain on the Facebook page and posted to the website.

Worship service will also be broadcasted on WDOR Sunday evenings at 7:10pm.

SURVIVING THE LOSS OF A SPOUSE: GROUP MUST PAUSE FOR 2 MONTHS

Mandy Sarazan, the MSW Grief Coordinator for our group, has been directed by her agency to temporarily pause In Person grief group meetings. This is due to the high numbers of new COVID cases in our area, as well as State Wide. We will not be meeting for September and October. At the end of October, we will reevaluate the situation.

It is our hope to meet together again in November. If you have been vaccinated, PLEASE get your booster. If you are not vaccinated, please talk to your doctor, or a medical person you trust, and get vaccinated.

If you have any questions, please contact LouAnn Brown, RN, Grief Group Facilitator. (920)746-8645)

REMINDER
This Sunday is Noisy Offering

NURSE'S NOTE : BLOOD PRESSURE CLINIC

Due to the increase of COVID cases, and the fact that our county, and State, are now considered HIGH RISK, the monthly Blood Pressure Clinic in my office will be put on hold until further notice. Thank You.

L. Brown, RN

The Bay View Book Club Invites YOU!

*We are now reading
The Heirloom Garden,
by Viola Shipman*

*We will be meeting for discussion of this book on Wednesday, October 6, at 7pm,
in Conference Room 1, at church.
See you there!*

*We will meet quarterly,
in October, January, April, and July.*

REOPENING TASK FORCE

We are mindful of the continued rise in Covid cases throughout Door County but, with precautions, we feel we can continue to keep the church open. Please remember to be diligent about masking, social distancing, and washing your hands frequently. If you are not feeling well, please stay home. These simple precautions not only protect you and your loved ones but help to reduce the spread of the virus. Masks continue to be encouraged when attending the 8am service. When attending the 10:30am service masks are required because that is when Children's Church is offered and children under 12 are not yet eligible to be vaccinated. The church is open for in-person meetings and activities. Masking is required for those who are not fully vaccinated. If vaccinated and social distancing is observed, masking is at the discretion of the participants. Please note that any indoor activity involving children under the age of 12 requires masking for everyone involved. Thank you for doing your part to keep everyone safe.
