REOPENING TASK FORCE UPDATE

Throughout the past nine weeks, COVID cases in Door County have consistently decreased but are still considered very high. Using data reported on 11/14/21 from the New York Times, Door County had an average of 9.3 new cases per day over the last two weeks. When extrapolated out to 100,000 people, the new case level was at 37/100K. The test positivity rate remains at 10%. Door County falls within the very high risk level.

Getting vaccinated is an important way to protect yourself and others from getting COVID. 72% of the Door County population is fully vaccinated! The CDC continues to recommend that even vaccinated people should wear a mask in all public indoor spaces. Bay View members, thank you for doing your part to keep yourself and others safe. Thank you also for continuing to wear masks for all worship services.

TWO HELPFUL COMMUNITY RESOURCES ARE AVAILABLE AGAIN

The Holidays may not be merry, or eagerly anticipated by those who are suffering deep loss and alone. More likely they are dreaded. We would like to make you aware of two resources that are once again available to our community that will offer support, hope and healing.

One is a Grief Support Group that has been successfully meeting for about 6 years and had to halt meeting due to COVID. SURVIVING THE LOSS OF A SPOUSE will once again start meeting in person the second Thursday of each month at Bayview Lutheran Church, Conference Rm #1, from 10 - 11 am. (If you are unvaccinated, we ask you to protect yourself by wearing a mask). Please call LouAnn Brown, (920) 746-8645 for more information. Our next meeting will be the morning of Thursday, December 9th.

Another excellent resource in our community is the Divorce Care weekly seminar/support group that will help healing from the hurt. This 13-week course uses a workbook, videos done by expert counselors, discussion with the group, and warm, caring leaders who understand what you are going through. Gain hope for your future. This session is meeting by zoom, until the group feels comfortable meeting in person again. We will help you get connected on your computer. The 2nd class will be meeting this Thursday evening from 6 to 8 pm. For more information call Peter Mannoja (920) 559-3339, or LouAnn Brown (920) 746-8645.

Blessings,
LOUANN BROWN RN, Parish Ns BVLC
PASTOR PETER MANNOJA, Tanum Forest
